OLLI

at Northwestern University School of Professional Studies

OLLI

- A non-credit program dedicated to serving adults aged 50 and better
- No tests, no grades—only the joy of learning.

Imagine...

You are a student at OLLI trying to log into your class but only get confused and frustrated by the three different sites that OLLI maintains.

Challenge

The three online systems that OLLI maintains are often confusing and frustrating to prospective and current students.

Vision:

OLLI Integrated Course Management System

Let's make one tool

- Integrate the sites
- Enhance prospective members' understanding of the program
- Eliminate frustration of current members
